

Tips for Involved Parents from Gwinnett County Public Schools

Be There is a national movement that inspires parents to become more involved in their children's education. Teachable moments are everywhere. Be your child's favorite teacher. Connect in meaningful ways and your simple actions will reap immense rewards at home, play, and school!

Reinforce financial literacy skills at home

Financial literacy is a skill that your students will learn at school, but the Internet is full of great resources that parents can use at home to reinforce their student's learning of these lifelong skills. Explore the following suggestions with your student at home:
