GCPS students to represent school district at national business leaders conference

Eleven Gwinnett County Public Schools students have qualified to represent the school district and Georgia at the 2018 Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) National Leadership Conference after placing 1st or 2nd in the FBLA state competition. The national conference will be held in June in Baltimore, Maryland.

FBLA is the largest student business organization in the world with more than 250,000 members and is an important partner in business education and student leadership development. This career and technical student organization is recognized by the U.S. Departments of Education and Labor as an integral part of a co-curricular approach to business and leadership education. The FBLA mission is to bring business and education together in a positive working relationship through innovative leadership and career development programs.
