GCPS students receive national recognition from SREB for their outstanding achievement

The Southern Regional Education Board (SREB) recognized several Gwinnett County Public Schools (GCPS) students for their performance on the SREB Advanced Career (AC) End-of-Course tests. The spring assessments, which include selected-response test items in the areas of career technical education, literacy, math, and science, reflect critical content standards for each course.

The following students scored at the “Proficient” or “Advanced” levels on these challenging end-of-course assessments:
