GCPS to host annual Transition Fair

On March 14, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., Discovery High School will host Gwinnett County Public Schools' 2020 Transition Fair for students with disabilities, their families, and educators. The event will provide information about community services and resources for young people who have disabilities and may need assistance as they transition to adulthood. Attendees will have the opportunity to meet with local agency representatives regarding various options available for school-aged students as well as transitional services to post-school activities and employment.

Breakout sessions will cover topics including day programs, community living supports, vocational and career services, transition resources, and recreation and leisure opportunities. Discovery High is located at 1335 Old Norcross Road in Lawrenceville. For more information, call 678-301-7110 or email Transition_Fair@gwinnett.k12.ga.us
