Mosley to lead new high school in Meadowcreek Cluster

At its regular monthly meeting, the Gwinnett County Board of Education named Berkmar Middle School Principal Nicole Mosley as the principal of a health sciences themed high school opening in the Meadowcreek Cluster in August of 2019. Ms. Mosley will continue at Berkmar Middle until a new principal is named and then will transition to her new role.

The new high school in the Meadowcreek Cluster has yet to be named. It is located at 3921 Club Drive in Duluth. As a theme high school, its focus will be on providing a rigorous, college preparatory curriculum through the lens of health science, combining required coursework with practical medical and health industry experiences. The main program areas will include: Patient care, Allied health, Health Informatics, and Advanced Medicine. The school will serve students in the Meadowcreek Cluster.
