Gwinnett County Public Schools continues summer meal program for two weeks in July

Gwinnett County Public Schools (GCPS) will resume its Summer Meals Program on July 6 after a brief break the week of June 29-July 3. The program, which provides breakfast and lunch offerings to children, will run from July 6 - 16. GCPS launched its summer meals program on June 8 and has served nearly 122,000 meals in a three-week period during June.

During July, GCPS will continue service at the 25 sites that hosted the Summer Meals Program in June, plus two new locations, (Duluth High School and Anderson-Livsey Elementary School). Meals will be available for pickup by anyone 18 years-old and younger, Monday-Thursday, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. (On Thursday, meals will include meals for both Thursday and Friday.) A child does not have to be a student at the school site to receive a meal; however, the student or child must be present to receive a meal.
